CHRISTMAS GIVING TREE

Beginning TODAY, stop by the Giving Trees in the foyer and select a tag, purchase the gift listed and return the unwrapped gift by December 6 with the tag attached. Volunteers will wrap the gifts and distribute them to MAG families. Additionally, gifts go to the Community Christmas Store, where Miamisburg City School District families in need can shop for free. Not a shopper? Not a problem! Donations for the Giving Tree will be used to purchase any unselected gifts.

A GENERATIONAL CHRISTMAS: HONORING OUR KING

December 13, in Sunday morning service, we're bringing generations together to celebrate the birth of our Savior! Enjoy special performances from our Kids, Youth, Young Adults, and Silver Saints choirs. Every generation has a part in telling the greatest story ever told — the birth of Jesus! This will be a special family worship service and everyone will gather together in the sanctuary, there will be no separate children's classes. Invite your family, friends, and neighbors as we come together across generations to honor our King!

Starting November 29, we will have a collection set up in the foyer for your cards. Drop off your cards and payment in our collection bin, and we will ensure they reach the right recipients for just 25 cents per card!
