Premium Auto Check-In Audio Conferencing

$0.16 per line/per minute

Using Premium Auto Check-in, participants call in to join the meeting via a designated telephone number and, when prompted, enter their conference ID using their touch-tone phone.

- All incoming calls will be answered by our automated system prompting them to enter their conference ID
- The lead coordinator checks the line quality, places call-outs, and if needed, reads your introductory script, setting the stage for your conference
- Lead coordinator remains online throughout the call and can help facilitate any Q&A or Polling sessions
- Pair with ConferenceWatch™ to see participant lines, prioritize the questions queue and control your event
- Recording and Playback options are also available

SPE has partnered with Connex International, a global conferencing provider, to bring audio and web conferencing solutions to you, our members, at discounted rates. They get the big picture and work with us to develop convenient, cost-effective solutions that really work.

Adobe® Connect™ Web Conferencing

pricing based on your requirements

Adobe Connect 8.0 is our newest offering for web conferencing and collaboration. Connect and engage audiences in recurring meetings, training sessions and more formal presentations. Adobe Connect utilizes the Adobe Flash® Player, which is currently installed on over 99% of internet-ready computers, allowing your participants to join without special plug-ins or downloads.

- Flash technology is consistent across Windows®, Mac OS® X, Linux®, Solaris® and other operating systems. Adobe Connect integrates your Connex MeetNow account as well as Outlook® or Lotus Notes®, and a free mobile app allows your participants to join an Adobe meeting right from an iPad®, iPhone®, or iPod Touch®.
- Unlimited storage for documents and recordings, and content may be pulled into a meeting at any time. Adobe Connect enables a rich multimedia experience. Multiple webcam sharing is also supported.
- Conduct Q&A or polling sessions for instant feedback, chat across the meeting and even enable participants to share content.
- Your meeting can be completely customized – add your logo, upload background images, use a custom URL and more!

ConnexPresents LIVE Web Conferencing

$0.20 per line/per minute

ConnexPresents LIVE makes it easy to work with colleagues, customers, and partners no matter where you are. Kick off a project, brainstorm ideas, edit files, collaborate or negotiate deals without the cost and hassle of travel. This powerful web conferencing solution helps your company to conduct effective online meetings either on demand or with an event — it's your choice.

- Share documents and applications with your audience
- Easily integrates with familiar Microsoft Office tools such as Outlook, Word, Excel, & PowerPoint
- Multiple presenters can display high-resolution, PowerPoint slides with animations to better engage your audience
- Schedule ConnexPresent LIVE meetings right from Outlook
- Conduct polls, Q&A sessions, and edit and review documents with colleagues online for true real-time collaboration

Event Services

pricing based on your requirements

With Event Services through Connex, you'll be able to focus on your core directive while we handle the technical details. Whether you're demonstrating your product or services to clients, training employees on new internal processes or perhaps giving sales presentations to prospects – regardless of your specific web conferencing needs, your message can easily get overpowered by the technical details of your delivery platform. Our dedicated team of event coordinators are here to help you:

- Identify measures of success and event objectives
- Create invitations for your event
- Schedule your event
- Upload content and event media
- Train your presenters and conduct a dry run of your event
- Monitor the live event and provide technical support
- Provide post-event evaluation and report
