Abby Stempson Co-Authors Chapter in ABA's New Consumer Protection Guide

Abigail Stempson

February 6, 2025

Kelley Drye Special Counsel Abigail Stempson has contributed to the American Bar Association's latest publication, Consumer Protection: Understanding Enforcement Actions Brought by State Attorneys General. The book, co-edited by experts in state attorney general matters, provides in-depth analysis and practical guidance on consumer protection enforcement.

Abby co-authored Chapter 8, which focuses on multistate enforcement matters, offering key insights for in-house counsel, businesses, and practitioners handling consumer protection investigations.

For more information about the book, visit the ABA here: https://www.americanbar.org/products/inv/book/447873903/?q=&wt=json&src=aba-nav-flyout-search&start=0