Should We All Praise Him?

"The Bible is the greatest commentary of itself" – Martin Luther

I could wax eloquently about how we should be praising the Lord, not just on Sunday but in every aspect of our life, but I will heed the words above of someone who wrote vast commentaries but still believed that the Bible alone minus any trappings of man could change lives. So enough from me here is the Word.

Let everything that breathes sing praises to the Lord!
Psalm 150:6

Praise the Lord, all you nations; extol him, all you peoples.
For great is his love toward us, and the faithfulness of the Lord endures forever. Praise the Lord.
Psalm 117 – The shortest Psalm

"The people whom I formed for Myself Will declare My praise.
Isaiah 43:21

As it is written: "Therefore I will praise you among the Gentiles; I will sing the praises of your name." Again, it says, "Rejoice, you Gentiles, with his people." And again, "Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles; let all the peoples extol him."
Romans 15:9-11

Lastly, I will include what has been the theme verse for my ministry for 44 years when as a 17-year-old high school senior I was asked to lead our church in worship and direct the choir for a 3 month interim while our Minister Of Music dealt with an illness.

Let the godly sing for joy to the LORD; it is fitting for the pure to praise him.
Praise the LORD with melodies on the lyre; make music for him on the ten-stringed harp. Sing a new song of praise to him; play skillfully on the harp, and sing with joy. – Psalm 33:1-3

YES!! We should all praise Him!!

Serving Him,
John

FROM THE PASTOR'S PEN...

This morning, we will step out of our study of John's gospel to observe the Lord's Supper together in obedience to Scripture. Paul told the Corinthain church that on Jesus' last night with the disciples, they met in the Upper Room to share the Passover meal and He commanded them to "do this in remembrance of Me."
By our observance, we will proclaim our belief that Jesus became a man and dwelt among us, took our sins and bore them to the cross, paid the debt for our sin with His death, was buried, rose again and was seen by many before His ascension, and He will one day return to the earth as King of kings and Lord of lords. I believe this is true because . . .
...Jesus promised to return! He promised His resurrection; it occurred! He promised to return; He will! Please recall with me John 14:3, spoken in the Upper Room, hours before His crucifixion; He said, "If I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself, that where I am, there you may be also." The greatest event, yet in the future, is the glorious return of Jesus Christ. Yet, many today are still wondering, "what will His return mean for believers?" When Jesus returns, will we have complete and final victory over sin, death, and the grave! We rejoice as we look forward to seeing the One who came that we might know God's love and mercy. If you still doubt that He will return, let me also tell you that . . .
...The angels said He is coming back! Luke records that after meeting with His disciples, as Jesus was rising into the clouds "two men in white clothing stood beside them. They also said, 'Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking into the sky? This Jesus" ... "will come in just the same way as you have watched Him go into heaven'" (Acts 1:10-11). We must remember this truth as we obey what He has commanded and encourage one another to live expectantly as we await His return. If you're still in doubt, allow me to remind you that . . .
...The apostles confidently declared, "Jesus is coming again!" Peter believed in the glorious return of Jesus Christ. He preached in the Temple (Acts 3:20) and wrote of the day "when the Chief shepherd appears" (1 Peter 5:4). Paul believed Jesus was coming again, and wrote about his return in letters to Thessalonica, Corinth, and Philippi. John certainly believed Jesus was coming again. In writing his Revelation, he tells us that three time in Revelation 22 that Jesus said, "I am coming quickly" (22:7, 12, 20)
As we partake of the bread and the cup, let's remember that Jesus put on flesh for us and died a sacrificial death to provide for us forgiveness and eternal life. As we partake, let's rejoice in the fact that we are a part of that chain, extending from the ministry of Jesus, who have the privilege of proclaiming His death until He returns. Are your ready to come to His table? Is your faith real and strong? Have you trusted in Him as Lord and Savior, believing that He is coming again? Have you surrendered your heart and life to His control? You can get ready this morning. Will you place your faith in Jesus today? Believe, receive, and follow Him right now – and you will . . . Be Blessed!

Under His wing,
Pastor Tim
