Dear Sirs:

In answer to your letter of Aug 17/29 will say that Private Buhrman was killed north west of Varennes France - in a little ways from the edge of the front. I know the place very well as I passed his body on my way to establish a forward observation post for the 1st battalion of the 130 F.A. And I wondered where he was buried. He may be buried as "unknown" - as another soldier had taken off his identification tags - I took one away from him and asked him to place the other back on the body - This can be verified by my superior officers.

Yours

Re: Levi Duhrman (Buhrman)

On July 6th you wrote us inquiring whether the above-named, who was in the 129th Infantry, was of Jewish faith. We have finally succeeded in locating the brother of the deceased, who informs us that the correct name of the soldier should read "Levi Buhrman" and that he was not of the Jewish faith. The brother, Edward Buhrman, now resides in Petaluma, Calif.
