

Upcoming Adult Education Forums

Another season of outstanding presentations during the new Education Hour (9:40 to 10:20) has now started. The Adult Education Team has assembled an excellent lineup of speakers who will present on topics ranging from Scripture education to current interest topics. So whether you worship at 8:30 or 10:30, please grab a cup of coffee and head each Sunday to Room 40. Sessions start at 9:40 and end at 10:20.

November 8: Join Drs. Erik Storlie and Andrew Olson, hospitalists at M Health Fairview University Medical Center and Abbott Northwestern, for a thoughtful discussion of the questions individuals and families often face when a loved one is approaching the end of life. Topics will include code status, surrogate decision-makers, advance care planning, meaningful conversations with family, and care options following hospitalization, including rehabilitation and long-term care. This presentation will offer helpful information for navigating difficult decisions and communicating a loved one's wishes with greater understanding and confidence.

November 15: Join Pastor Rolf Olson, Nancy Olson, and Pat Derry for "Journeys to Alabama and Mississippi: Reflections on the Civil Rights Movement – Then and Now." Pat toured these states a few years ago, and the Olsons recently completed a similar journey. They will share reflections on the places they visited, what they learned, and the differences they noted between the 1960s and today.

Roseville Lutheran Church

Sunday Update

November 8, 2026

RLC Stewardship
God's Gifts our Gratitude

Growing Abundant Faith and Love

Join us on Sunday, November 8, for Stewardship Sunday as we bring our Statements of Intent to the altar during worship. These commitments express our gratitude to God for our many blessings and our support for Christ's ministry and mission at Roseville Lutheran Church.

As you prayerfully consider your commitment, reflect on how your generosity helps nurture faith, build meaningful relationships, and sustain the worship, music, and ministries we share. If you are unable to attend worship on November 8, you are welcome to mail your Statement of Intent to the church office.

Then join us on Sunday, November 22, for Celebration Sunday! We will share the initial results of our Growing Abundant Faith and Love Stewardship Campaign and celebrate God's abundant blessings in our lives and in our church.

Thank you for your faithful support and for being part of the ministry we make possible together!

Save the Date – Dresser Build

Mark your calendar for our Bridging Dresser Build on January 24! Join us as we build dressers to help families create a comfortable, welcoming home. It's a chance to serve together and make a difference in our community.

Watch for more details and registration information coming soon!

Sunday Morning Coffee

Join us this Sunday in the Social Hall for the usual pastries and coffee (cereal and milk also). Coffee will be ready at 8 am, pastries from 9 to 11:45 am.

Thank you for your free will donations, they help offset the cost of the food offered on Sunday mornings. Please come and enjoy a cup of coffee and fellowship around a table in the Social Hall or pickup your coffee and pastry on your way to Adult Education. If you would like, please bring an easy, quick game along to teach and share with others during the Fellowship Hour. See you there!

RLC Reads – November 12

Join us Thursday, November 12, at 7:00 PM in the coffee shop area near the church office, inside the north doors, to discuss The Secret Book Society by Madeline Martin.

Set in 1895 London, this historical novel follows three women who find friendship, freedom, and courage through a secret book club.

Everyone is welcome—even if you haven't finished the book!

Questions? Contact Pam McCulloch at pammij@comcast.net.

All Saints Love Lights

Honor your loved ones who SHINE with God's love this Christmas! Donate to RLC's Endowment Fund and their name will be listed in the Festival Christmas Concert program and an All Saints Love Lights presentation (Dec. 19th). Lights in the sanctuary reflect the love shared by those in memory of and/or honor of.

Please visit the Welcome desk in the Commons after or between services on Sunday to pick up the informational card for remembering and/or honoring your Saints. When completed, return it with your donation to the Welcome desk or to the RLC office by noon, December 14th.

Greeters Needed

Roseville Lutheran is a busy place with a number of events in the next few months and regular Sunday morning. If you are interested in being a greeter to welcome people into Roseville Lutheran, please let Julie Wendland at wendland8120@msn.com or Mary Johnson in the office know.

Mezzanine Art Expands

As a companion exhibit to the botanical art in the North Mezzanine, the South Mezzanine now features prints of Carolyn Mohn's watercolor paintings that capture the divine in nature. Take a few minutes to soak in the majesty of God's creation in the paintings of sunsets, botanicals, and evergreens. Thanks to the Design Continuity Team for beautifying this space.
