Welcome

ROSEBANK UNION CHURCH

11 January 2026

Bless the Lord, O my soul,
and all that is within me,
bless his holy name!

Psalm 103:1

ORDER OF SERVICE

Call to Worship

Psalm 103: 1-5, 19-22 (ESV)

We begin and conclude each worship service by reading from the Scriptures—a practice that centres our hearts on the truth that it is God's voice we most long to hear. What a joy it is to know that He not only speaks, but delights to speak to us.

Songs of Worship

10,000 Reasons
What You're Worthy Of Amazing Grace

Throughout the centuries, Christians have lifted their voices in song together—an expression of hearts moved by the profound wonder of what God has done for us in Christ. His grace stirs in us a joy so deep that we cannot help but respond with praise, often even clapping with delight as songs draw to a close.

Offering

Church Life

The offering is a natural extension of our worship—an act through which we express heartfelt gratitude for God's generous provision, affirm our trust in His continued care, and participate in His ongoing work in the world through the ministry of the church.

Pastoral Prayer

Our time of prayer offers a sacred moment for us, as a community, to lift our hearts to God—guided by the words of our service host. In these prayers, we often rejoice in God's goodness through adoration and praise, humbly repent through confession, and faithfully bring our requests before Him in petition.

Scripture Reading

Matthew 6: 5-14 (ESV)

At the centre of our service we pay close attention to the word of God, a particular passage of scripture that will be expounded upon in preaching.

Sermon & Prayer

Richard Van Lieshout

The sermon is a Scripture-based teaching that carefully unpacks the text - revealing its meaning, illuminating its relevance, and ultimately guiding our minds, hearts, and lives toward Christ.

Song of Response

The Lords Prayer
Holy Forever

Service Close

We conclude our time of worship with a benediction—a blessing drawn from Scripture- that sends us into the world with the faith, hope, and love of Jesus rooted deeply in our hearts.

Time of Fellowship

The time of fellowship after the service is an opportunity to enjoy the connection we have in Christ through coffee and conversation.
