

BARBECUE JUDGING SEMINAR

Saturday, November 7, 2009

Memphis in May is pleased to offer barbecue judging seminars for enthusiasts who wish to judge our championship. The purpose of these seminars is to instruct judges in the mechanics of judging the World Championship Barbecue Cooking Contest. The Memphis in May World Championship Barbecue Cooking Contest uses only 100% trained and/or certified judges.

Topics that will be covered at the judging seminar include: the Memphis in May judging process and rules, the official meat categories, the scoring process, blind, on-site, and final judging. You will sample barbecue during simulated judging exercises by barbecue teams.

After attending a Memphis in May judging seminar, you may gain certification by meeting the following requirements:

- Judge an official meat category at two World Championship Barbecue Cooking Contests
- Return a completed Certification form to Memphis in May.

The judging seminar cost is $69 which includes all materials and lunch, and is limited to the first 100 registrants.

Our next seminar will be held:
