WOOD BADGE
14-100-27

Why should you want to attend Wood Badge?

You want to participate in a Wood Badge course because of things you will learn and do. Here are some of the benefits:

- Stronger units. You will make your Scouting unit — and your sons' and daughters' units — stronger.
- What and why of Scouting. You will have a deeper understanding of what Scouting is and why we do it.
- Experience. You will learn and experience things that will stay with you in Scouting and the rest of your life.
- Fun. You will have fun and you will meet interesting people.
- Other groups. You will make your other groups, like work, church, even family, stronger.

Here's another summary of why to go. This was originally aimed particularly at Scouters in the Cub Scout program, but it applies equally to all of us.
CUB SCOUT LEADERS! How would you like to attend a training that takes you far beyond your Basic Leader Training? Would you like to build your skills in communication, corflict management and teaching methods? How about a leadership course that rivals many corporate level trainings?

Who Can Attend Wood Badge?

To attend a Wood Badge course, Scouters must:

- Be registered members of the Boy Scouts of America. (There are no minimum tenure requirements.)
- Have completed the basic training courses for their Scouting positions, including current YPT.
- Have completed the outdoor skills training programs appropriate for their Scouting positions.
- Be capable of functioning safely in an outdoor environment. Completion of Parts A,B&C of the BSA Health form is required for all participants.
