CIIA / ICAI
Canadian Institute of International Affairs
Institut Canadien des Affaires Internationales

Canada-United States Relations: Views From Both Sides of the Border

October 15, 2007
Cadieux Auditorium
Lester B. Pearson Building

AGENDA

3:30 p.m. Welcome

- Bruce S. Gelb, President, Council of American Ambassadors
- Craig Hunter, President, Canadian Institute of International Affairs National Capital Branch

3:35 p.m. Opening Remarks

- William Crosbie, Director General for North America, Ministry of Foreign Affairs

3:45 p.m. Panel

- James J. Blanchard (Moderator), Former U.S. Ambassador to Canada and former Governor of Michigan
- Michael Kergin, Former Canadian Ambassador to the U.S. and Premier of Ontario's Special Advisor on Border Issues
- George Haynal, Vice President of Government Affairs for Bombardier and former Assistant Deputy Minister for the Americas in the Department of Foreign Affairs and International Trade
- Paul Heinbecker, Director of the Laurier Centre for Global Relations and former Canadian Ambassador to the United Nations
- Christopher Sands, Senior Fellow, Hudson Institute and former Visiting Fellow at Carleton University

4:45 p.m. Discussion

5:25 p.m. Closing

- James J. Blanchard, Former U.S. Ambassador to Canada and former Governor of Michigan

5:30 p.m. Adjournment

All are invited to a reception in the lobby immediately following the program.

Event Co-Sponsors:

Council of American Ambassadors

Canadian Institute of International Affairs / Institut Canadien des Affaires Internationales