COMPASS

BUYER'S GUIDE

The Jeep® Compass has what it takes to gain traction in every corner of your world. Its stunning exterior makes a great first impression, and its welcoming interior caters to every sense. Trail Rated® performance means Jeep Compass will smooth out those everyday bumps and curves, as well as put you at ease in more challenging terrain. After all, Compass has some inherent Jeep 4x4 skills: water fording,[1*] controlled traction, maneuverability, articulation and ground clearance — just to name a few. Advanced driving assist systems make for more autonomous and safer handling, while cutting-edge connectivity, entertainment and information features are delivered through intuitive digital displays. Clearly, Jeep Compass is built for elevation — in every sense of the word.
