Your body and Your blood, Once slain and shed for me,
Are taken at Your table, Lord, In blest reality.
Search not how this takes place, This wondrous mystery;
God can accomplish vastly more Than what we think could be.
O grant, most blessed Lord, That earth and hell combined
May not about this sacrament Raise doubt within my mind.
Oh, may I never fail To thank You day and night
For Your true body and true blood, O God, my peace and light.

How does Communion help us through life issues?

We all struggle with brokenness. Sometimes that brokenness can lead us to feel alone, sad, or angry enough to hurt the people we love or ourselves. In Communion, Jesus forgives our sins and strengthens our faith, empowering us to share God's gifts of life and love with others.

Let's talk about

COMMUNION

At the Last Supper Jesus miraculously gave His body and blood for the forgiveness of their sins. In Communion, we receive forgiveness of sins, salvation, and life eternal. Christ's victory over sin, death, and the devil is our victory as He feeds us with His body and blood.

Lil' Lutherans 4 Life

While they were eating, Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take it; this is my body."

Then he took a cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and they all drank from it. "This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many."
