Thanksgiving may be all about the turkey and trimmings, but there is plenty of room at the table for a great glass of wine. From festive bubbles and bold reds to bottles worthy of gifting, gathering or simply giving thanks, these wines offer 14 delicious reasons to raise a glass this fall.

Larkmead Vineyards 2017 Solari Estate Cabernet Sauvignon
Pulled from the library, this 100% Cabernet Sauvignon comes from Larkmead's historic Calistoga estate and spent 19 months aging in French oak. Violet, cassis and dried herbs are joined by black cherry, plum, bittersweet chocolate and crushed rock for a taste of Napa with nearly a decade already behind it. $247
