THIS WEEK IN THE BACKYARD

Bible: Genesis 17-18; 21-22

Big Idea: We can receive God's promise of eternal life by trusting in Jesus.

Memory Verse:
Genesis 17:6-7

I will make you exceedingly furitful, and I will make you into nations, and kings shall come from you. And I will establish my covenant between me and you and your ofspring after you throught their generations for an everalasting covanant, to be God to you and to your offspring after you.

What We Learned:

God demands a sacrifice to atone for sin, but He sent Jesus to be that perfect sacrifice. Thos who place their trust in Jesus recieve God's promise of eternal life instead of the punishment they deserve.

GENESIS 17–18; 21–22

God Keeps His Promises

God promised Abraham that he would have a son, even though Abraham and Sarah were very old. God did exactly what he promised! Later, God tested Abraham's faith, and Abraham trusted God to provide a sacrifice. These stories remind us that God always keeps his promises, and we can trust him even when we don't understand everything he is doing.

Big Truth:

God promised Abraham that he would have a son, even though Abraham and Sarah were very old. God did exactly what he promised! Later, God tested Abraham's faith, and Abraham trusted God to provide a sacrifice. These stories remind us that God always keeps his promises, and we can trust him even when we don't understand everything he is doing.

Family Prayer:

Father, thank You that we cannot earn Your love. Help our family trust Your promises and rest in the grace You have given us through Jesus. Amen.

Read Together:

Read Genesis 17–18; 21–22 together.

If your child is younger, read slowly and stop to ask:

1. What did God promise Abraham and Sarah? How did God keep his promise?
2. Was it easy or difficult for Abraham to trust God? Why?
3. What did God provide for the sacrifice instead of Isaac?
4. How can we trust God when something is hard or confusing?
5. How has God shown us that we can trust his promises in Jesus?

Remember: God always keeps His promises. We can trust Him.

Family Activity

Take turns naming promises people sometimes make. Which promises can people always keep, and which ones might they break? Talk about how God is different because he always keeps his promises. Finish by thanking God for sending Jesus, the promised Savior, who brings forgiveness and eternal life to everyone who trusts in him.
