TUDOR DRIVE

A great property for a small family or sharers, on North Kingston's popular Tudor Drive, towards Ham, is this semi-detached two-double-bedroom home with large garden. Tudor Drive is a pleasant tree-lined road with charming houses, and is a great location, being on the 371 bus route for Kingston or Richmond town centres, and being close to Tiffin Girls' School as well as the River Thames. Tudor Drive offers local shops and a post office.

This home boasts two double bedrooms each with a large bay window and an ensuite, both a front and rear garden, and an outhouse with potential to be used as an office. Further benefits include the double reception, with bay window to the front and double doors to the garden patio and sprawling lawn beyond at the rear. The kitchen, with integrated shelving and cooker, also offers side access to the garden with shed. The front-facing master bedroom, with a large and a small bay window, comes with wardrobe and an ensuite shower room. The bedroom overlooking the garden offers an ensuite bathroom, with shower over bath, the WC separate. There is permit-free parking and a bin store in the good-sized front garden. Available unfurnished. 1st August 2021
