FANTASTIC RETAIL FROM NEAR AND FAR

Midtown Village sits at the crossroads of commerce which connects multiple retail districts such as Rittenhouse Square, the Fashion District and Old City. EXPLOSIVE COMMERCIAL & RESIDENTIAL DEVELOPMENT

With so much exciting retail and restaurant activity happening, it's no surprise that Midtown Village is experiencing monumental residential and employment growth to match. Booned by the construction of Jefferson University's new medical pavilion and the thousands of employees coming with it, few neighborhoods are witnessing the same number of residential towers, development projects and vertical momentum of this corridor.
