Worship With Us this Sunday, August 31

Worship with us at 10am this Sunday! Join us here at PUCC or on YouTube Live (@parkwayuccstl)... or participate any time later on YouTube.

We will share Luke 14:1, 7-14 when Jesus gives etiquette lessons and reminds us that we are not the center of the universe. We are called to treat others with dignity and respect. We are encouraged to serve others without expecting anything in return.

Our passage from the early church in Hebrews 13:1-8 reminds us how to care for one another through hospitality, visiting others and keeping our love commitments.

Some of our nonagenarians will share their ideas, perspectives and life experiences as it connects with our scriptures for the day.

Please join us in honoring and celebrating Nancy Darland, Mildred Hoxie, Gerre Langton, Skip Larson, Ruth Peace, Naomi Runtz. Peg Sant'Ambrogio, Florence Simonson, Gladys Sims, Charlotte Smith and Don Wandless.

Worship bulletin here!

Songs include: Holy Ground; Holy, Holy, Holy! Lord God Almighty; Spirit of the Living God; Love, Love, Love; Blest Be the Tie that Binds ; Doxology; Our God, Our Help in Ages Past

BBQ For Ben PUCC Carnival Picnic

VBS is going to be capped off with a carnival picnic! After worship on Sunday, August 31, we'll have a BBQ with games. The church will cover the hot dogs and sloppy joes, fun carnival games, a chicken petting zoo, and an ice cream truck.

We will need people to help with set up and tear down, and food prep. We've set up a sign-up sheet in the Gathering Space to signup for side dishes. You can also sign up here!

So if you're able to help, please contact me at gabriel@parkwayucc.org

Prayer Partner Before and After Worship this Sunday

PUCCer Lynn Mark is available in the front left corner of the sanctuary before and after worship this Sunday to pray confidentially with individuals. She is a trained prayer chaplain. She will call on the presence of God and help create a safe spiritual space. Lynn will listen to you as you tell her a bit about your prayer request. She will offer an affirmative prayer out loud, reminding you of your inner strengths rather than ask God for a specific outcome. She will pray that you are guided by God's infinite love, presence and support... and that any joy or gratitude will be multiplied and any fear or doubt will be transformed into peace and confidence.

Nursery Sunday Hours

Besides during worship, the Nursery is also open before worship from 9:00–10:00am and after worship from 11:15am–12:15pm *(*on Sundays when we have a Speaker Series or other need for extended care) for infants and kids through 5th grade, where they will receive loving care from our Nursery childcare providers Kara and Katie.
For more info, please contact me at gabriel@parkwayucc.org

SPEAKER SERIES

Speaker Series Occasional opportunities after worship at 11:15am

"Transition Stories," by Lynn Mark, former hospice nurse and Parkway member.

Sunday, September 7 | 11:15am | Heritage Room

As a hospice nurse for over 15 years, Lynn Mark accompanied many people on that universal final voyage. Each person traveled their road much like they had lived their one individual life. Facing the unknown, patients and the people who loved and cared for them bravely lived through each day. Because we are all fellow travelers you are invited to share their journeys.

Come and hear stories of faith and courage from patients and the people that traveled the path with them.

"The Fiddle: Why We Love it," by Cindi Nouri and Rich Race.

Sunday, September 21 | 11:15am | Heritage Room

Do you remember a melody or jingle or rhyme that makes you feel happy? Have you ever wanted to play an instrument? Parkway members, Cynthia Nouri and Rich Race will present "Hand Me Down Music" where they will play and discuss the social origins and popularity of folk and old time music.

Join us for a special musical edition of the Speakers Series, where Rich and Cindy will tell us why the fiddle brings magic and music to their hearts and, who knows, maybe they will favor us with a few tunes.

All programs start after worship service at approximately 11:15 AM in the Heritage Room.

For questions, kindly contact Richard Scherrer at 90fivetpr@gmail.com

We are about to start collecting signatures for Respect MO Voters. It's a cross partisan, volunteer group dedicated to getting an amendment on the MO ballot 11/26. This amendment will prohibit the legislature from undoing the will of the majority of voters, as was done after the 11/24 vote. This was also done in the past regarding puppy mills, clean Missouri, and several other issues the citizens of MO voted for. It was also tried in the 80s when democrats were in the majority. This is why it's cross partisan. Whichever side of the aisle you identify with, the majority will of the people should prevail.

Please stop by our table in the gathering space before or after Sunday services. Take some information about the group, consider joining the movement, and sign the petition. For more info, contact Michelle Singer mrsinger71@gmail.com

Community Happenings

Statement of Compassionate Concern

IPSTL Cabinet Statement of Solidarity after the Hateful Targeting of a Local Jewish Family The Cabinet of Interfaith Partnership of Greater St. Louis continues to stand in solidarity with the Jewish community after the act of hate that targeted a local Jewish family on August 5th 2025.

This is the latest in a rising trend of verbal, physical, and violent attacks aimed at Jewish individuals nationally, and the Cabinet is committed to denouncing antisemitism, Islamophobia, bigotry and any other form of hate aimed at religious groups or persons in our communities.

We recognize the international events that brought this horrible incident to St. Louis. We ache for the suffering in Gaza and the pain that remains from October 7th. However, the Cabinet firmly believes that there is no place for acts of violence or intimidation when expressing one's desire for peace or calls for justice.

We pray for a day when no one should be afraid to identify publicly with any faith tradition and believe that through our interfaith relationships we can find unity across differences and build a community where all can flourish together as neighbors.

The Interfaith Partnership represents 34 religious communities of faith and conscience within the St. Louis area.

Something to Ponder

My chosen grandfather Jim McCormick says that something is of God if it looks, acts, talks and walks like Jesus. All good religion, as Maya Angelou reminds us, is a daily practice of kindness, fairness, generosity, and respect. It's humility that knows the work is never finished. It is love embodied in action, not belief shouted from pulpits or legislated into law. And it is always willing to ask, 'Who is being left out? Who is being harmed in my certainty?'

These are dangerous times. But they are also clarifying ones. As the voices of Christian nationalism grow louder, those of us who are still trying to be faithful - still failing and still returning to love - must speak. Not with the same weapons. Not with the same certainty. But with the quiet, steady strength of humility and fierce compassion.

Let's be the ones who are still trying. Because trying - earnestly, humbly, daily - is perhaps the most faithful thing we can do. ~ Cameron Trimble
