About The Arranger

Stephen Rew holds his Bachelors and Masters of Music Education from the Conservatory of Music and Dance at the University of Missouri, Kansas City. In over a decade as a public educator he has received his district's Teacher of the Year Award twice, and is sought after as a clinician and motivational speaker.

Currently, Rew is the West Central Missouri Music Educators Association District Vice-President for Elementary Choirs and the newly elected President-Elect for MCDA. He is a full time music educator at Raymore-Peculiar High School in Raymore, Missouri and a dedicated church musician, serving as music director at St. Paul's United Methodist Church.

Stephen lives in his dream home with his beautiful and supportive wife, Cindy and two children, Mason and Chloe, that are often the subject of a ridiculous amount of Facebook posts and photos.

Text

My life goes on in endless song
Above earth's lamentations,
I hear the real, though far-off hymn
That hails a new creation.

Through all the tumult and the strife
I hear that music ringing,
It sounds an echo in my soul.
How can I keep from singing?

While though the tempest loudly roars,
I hear the truth, it liveth.
And though the darkness 'round me close,
Songs in the night it giveth.

No storm can shake my inmost calm,
While to that rock I'm clinging.
Since love is Lord of heaven and earth,
How can I keep from singing?
