Johann P. Dierks, wife and 5 children immigrated to America leaving

Schleswig-Holstein on May 6, 1854, aboard the ship "Miles". He is buried in Dierks Cemetery, Clinton, Iowa. (Also known as Hampshire Prairie Cemetery)

Some records state Nordstapel and some state Norderstapel. It is the same town. All the records were at the church in Suderstapel, which is just a few kilometers away.

Death notice: Death of John Dierks An Old and Well-Known Resident Passes Away: John Dierks, whose critical illness was referred to in the last issue of the Advertiser, passed peacefully away at his home in Hampshire township, west of Lyons, on Thursday morning at ten o'clock. The eighty-fourth anniversary of his birth occurred the day before his death. He was born on the 26th day of May 1813, at Norderstapel, Schleswig, Holstein, and emigrated with his family to America in 1854. Settling in Clinton county he purchased of his brother 160 acres of land in Hampshire township upon which he resided until his death. Being industrious, honest and economical, aided by his wife, who died in 1882, and his children, he accumulated considerable property. Perhaps no other person in the state has left at his death so large a family. Besides his five sons, Hans, John, Detlef, Peter and Henry, and his two daughters, Mrs. Lueders and Mrs. Eggers, he has forty-four grandchildren and forty great grandchildren, all living within ten miles of the old homestead and nearly all in good circumstances. Certainly a remarkable record. The funeral will be held at one o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the home of deceased in Hampshire township with interment at the Dierks burying ground.

Clinton Daily Herald Clinton County, Iowa Fri., May 28, 1897 page 7 #230. Lyons (The north division of present-day Clinton)

Old Pioneer Gone. Death of John Dierks, Residing in Hampshire Township. Mr. John Dierks residing with his son, Peter, in Hampshire township, died at 10:15 Thursday morning, after an illness of only a few weeks. he caught a severe cold and on account of his years he could not recover. Deceased was born in Germany, May 26, 1813. He was married to Christina Lass in Germany in 1837. In 1854 he, with his family, came to this country, arriving in Chicago July 3. Mr Dierks went to Davenport on the morning of July 5. From there he drove overland to this county, settling in Hampshire township. He built the house in which he died. His wife preceded him 15 years. He leaves seven children: two girls, Mrs. Christ Lueders, of Hampshire township, and Mrs. George Eggers, of Elk River township: and five boys, Hans of Clinton, John, of Lyons; Detlef and Peter, of Hampshire township, and Henry, of Deep Creek township. All the children were at home during the last hours of their father's illness. Funeral from the late residence Sunday afternoon at one, interment in Dierk's cemetery. Mr. Dierk's was one of Clinton city's early and substantial settlers. he has 44 grandchildren and 40 great grand children, all living in this county.

In Wolfe's History of Clinton County Iowa, pp 669-671 is found an article on John's grandson, Henry W. Dierks, which contains much valuable information about the family. Incorrect dates are corrected in parentheses, and are added at time of compilation of this Family History. In referring to Henry W., it states:

"The Dierks family have long been prominent in the western part of Clinton county and have for many decades been regarded as among our leading agriculturists, at the same time maintaining a reputation for honesty and integrity second to no other family in the county. A well known and progressive member of this household is Henry W. Dierks, who was born on January 21, 1869, in Lincoln township, this county, on his father's farm. He is the son of Hans Dierks, an excellent citizen, who was born in Schleswig, Germany, on October 7, 1838. In that country was also born the paternal grandfather, John (Johann) Dierks, born in 1810 (1813) and he lived to the age of eighty-four years and one day. The paternal grandmother was Katrina (Catharina) Lass, who was born in Germany in 1813 (1814). The grandfather of the subject was a farmer in Germany and in 1854 he emigrated to America, arriving in Chicago on July 3, 1854. About one hundred Germans came across the ocean on a small sailing vessel, the voyage requiring seven weeks. Upon their arrival in Chicago they were compelled to spend their first night in a lumber yard owing to the fact that there were no accommodations. That city was little more than a mud hole then. The subject's father was the oldest member in the family. Henry W.'s grandfather located in Hampshire township, Clinton county, Iowa, beginning with one hundred and sixty acres. The father of Henry W. Dierks helped break the prairie sod, using sometimes five or six yoke of oxen. Grandfather Dierks prospered here, adding to his farm from time to time until he finally became the owner of four hundred and forty acres, besides his original farm. Hans Dierks, the father, grew to maturity in Germany and attended school there and he received a fairly good education. When he reached Iowa he assisted his father and was his principal dependence on his large farm, and he remained on the farm until the breaking out of the Civil war. Hans Dierks proved his loyalty to his adopted country by enlisting in the second company out of Lyons, Company M, First Iowa Volunteer Cavalry. He was first with this regiment in Missouri, fighting the bushwhackers. He served very faithfully and received an honorable discharge at Davenport before the system of drafting began. After the war he returned home and began renting land and later bought eighty acres. By hard work and judicious management he forged ahead until he is now the owner of three hundred and seventy-five acres in Center, Lincoln and Hampshire townships. He has an excellent farm, well improved and well adapted for the raising of all kinds of staple crops, and he also raises large herds of cattle. He is a noted barley grower. Hans Dierks has placed a number of excellent buildings on his home place in Lincoln township. He was road boss for a number of years, as a Republican, but he is now independent in local politics. He is a member of the German Lutheran church, as are also all the members of his family. He was married in August, 1861, to Anna C. Tietjens, who was born in Germany, from which country she came to Clinton county, Iowa, in 1856 with her parents, her birth having occurred in 1844. She was the daughter of Henry Tietjens. To this union the following children were born: Emma, deceased; John, deceased; Mrs. Anna c. Ingwersen; Mrs. Amanda H. Ingwersen; Henry W., of this review; Mrs. Emma H. Jaeger, and Hans George.

The father, Hans Dierks, came to Clinton in 1896 and retired from active farming. At No. 1206 North Second street, in Ringwood, a suburb of Clinton, he built a beautiful and modern residence where he is now spending his declining years in peace and in the midst of plenty as the result of his former years of splendid endeavor.

Henry W. Dierks, of this review, attended the public schools in Lincoln township and, being the oldest son, he remained on his father's farm and assisted with the general farm work. After his father's removal to Clinton in 1896, Henry W. took active charge of the home place and has since managed the same in a most satisfactory and successful manner, and has, in fact, conducted all the farms of his father in Lincoln township. He is regarded by all who have had occasion to study his methods as an up-to-date farmer of the modern and progressive school. He is in every way a fit representative of this, one of the oldest, most substantial and highly honored families in Clinton county.

Mr. Dierks has remained unmarried. He is deeply interested in his work and takes a delight in keeping every thing about him in first class condition. He is a general farmer and stock man, always keeping the best grade of live stock and he is regarded as a most excellent judge of the same.

Notes: The Clinton Herald Thursday February 28, 1924 p. 8
Alice Lampe, nine year old daughter of Henry Lampe, residing on the Main street road two miles west of Lyons, was drowned in Mill Creek about 6 o'clock Wednesday evening. The body was recovered this morning at 7:30 o'clock near the scene of the accident. The story of the unfortunated accident as told from the family home this morning was that Alice with her brother Raymond, age seven years, left home shortly before six o'clock to bring the cows from the pasture, which is about forty rods south of the Mill Creek bridge. The cattle had crossed to the other side of the creek. Alice was determined to cross also, and although her little brother pleaded with her not to attempt it, she started across the ice and water alone. It is thought she slipped and fell beneath the ice. Her brother who witnessed the accident hurried home and en route met his father who was on his way to assist the children. Neighbors were immediately notified and efforts made to recover the body, however they were not rewarded until this morning when the child's body was found ledged beneath a ledge of ice. It was necessary to saw away the ice to remove the little body from the water. Cornoner

Kellogg was notified and decided that an inquest would not be necessary. Alice Lampe was born June 3, 1915 at the rural home west of Lyons. She attended the Dierks school, was a lovable child and a favorite with all who knew her. Her mother passed away January 12, 1923. She is survived by her father, three brothers, Raymond, Elmer and Norman and three sisters, Leona, Florence and Henrietta. Funeral arrangement were not completed today.

Book 2 page 141 Clinton County Marriage Records. Death Register book 3 page 196 - 1 Jul 1947 - D31 Dec 1948; Widowed. J.E. O'Donnell, physician. Buried in Dierks Cemetery, Clinton. She was called Tracey, and was very pretty.

The following was written by Donna Van Buer: "Memories of Tracy Peters (Mrs.

Marx Peters), my paternal grandmother. Marx had died when I was only two years old, so my memories are only of Tracy as a widow. Tracy lived with "Aunt Vi" most of the time. But on occasion she would stay with J.C. (John Claus) or with us.

When she was staying with us, I can remember her cutting quilt pieces out of scraps left over from making our dresses. One pattern I can remember was made up of lots of little circles sewn together to look like flowers.

She'd make cookies and when she would mix up a cake, she would let Luanne and I lick the bowl. But she would warn us in German "Slickers get splinters in the tongue!"

She tried to teach Luanne and I a few words of German (Dad said it was Low German) such as Drrrein eoun (at least that's what it sounded like), meaning turn around. She was marking the hem of one of our dresses, and we had to turn so she could mark the rest of the way around.

She did like a good joke, and was not above telling one or two of her own. She lived until 1948, the year I got married, so I got to know her quite well." Her obituary was published in the Clinton Herald on Monday 19 Jan 1948.

Notes for Henry John Peters

Although Henry died three years before she was born, Virginia Peters Jones has collected the following information about him by talking to friends and family members. Henry was known as a very kind person and good neighbor. He broke in horses for his neighbors and served as a lay veterinarian for them free of charge. In fact, he would irritate his good wife by spending much of the butter and egg money for medicines for the neighbors' sick animals. Each time he took the butter and eggs to town, he stopped at Hans Wulf's tavern for a beer before going home. His son John Howard said Henry never raised his voice. "In fact," said Howard, "when I was young I stayed out all night one night, and thought if I was in the barn at milking time, no one would know I was gone. As I walked in the barn door the following morning, Dad grabbed me by the shirt collar and gave me a shake and said, "Don't ever do that again." That was the extent of my punishment." One of the things granddaughter Betty Peters Taylor remembered is that Henry liked butter on his cookies. He was butchering an animal and struck his head on a beam in the basement, resulting in the hemorrhage from which he died.

Obituary published in The Clinton Herald, 11 Feb 1932.

Notes for Bertha Kunau

Virginia Peters Jones has the following recollections: Bertha was a refined lady. She studied piano in Valpraiso, Indiana, and taught piano lessons. After her husband died, she made her principal home with her son, John Howard, and his family, also spending considerable time with her daughter, Bernice. She taught the children many things, including Bible stories, German prayers, little songs on the piano such as "Little Drops of Water" and rag rug crocheting. She tatted, and made wonderful heavy, dark German rye bread and grape tapioca that we poured the cream from the top of the milk bottle on, and watched the designs it made. When she was upset with Dad, she would chatter away at him in German so the kids wouldn't know what they were talking about. If one of us was doing something she thought we might get punished for, she would lift an index finger and say a rapid "tut-tut-tut!" But if Dad was there and we were about to get in trouble, she would say "XYZ, XYZ". This was her code to us that if we stopped whatever we were doing, she would give us a treat later. She was especially close to her grandson, Richard, who was born just ten days after her husband, Henry, died. Granddaughter Donna Marie Peters remembers " Grandma braided her hair and wore it in a bun at the back of her neck. When she took her braids out, she would let us kids stand on the couch behind her and brush her hair "one hundred strokes." She had adult-onset diabetes, and her grandchildren would bring her Lusk Lemon Drops when they came from the movies, thinking that because they were sour, it was okay for her to eat them. She provided stability to the children in a broken home. Obituary published in The Clinton Herald 13 April 1946.

Notes for Elfrieda Kunegunde Kunau

Death certificate states she was born on 31 Sept, 1877, not Oct. She is buried at Clinton Memorial Cemetery. The following is related by Virginia Peters Jones. "When I went to visit Aunt Frieda in her later years, she told me that when she became engaged to Uncle Ferdinand, one of the neighbors asked him whom he was going to marry. He replied, "Elfrieda Kunau". The neighbor replied, in German, "Ah, with glass and silver!" This referred to the well-to-do status of the Kunaus. Elfrieda further stated that when the neighbor women went to visit each other, they wore their everyday clothes, but when they went to visit her mother, they always wore their Sunday clothes!

Notes for Margaret Mommsen

Obituary: Margaret A. Kunau, age 93, died on Tuesday, September 27, 2005 at Finley Hospital in Dubuque, Iowa. Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p.m. Saturday, October 8th at St. John Evangelical Lutheran Church in Preston, Iowa with Pastor Gregory Geier officiating. Visitation will be from 4:00-8:00 p.m. Friday, October 7 at the Miller-Law-Jones Funeral Home in Preston.
Memorials may be made to the Scholarship Fund at St. John Evangelical Lutheran Church or to St. Olaf College, Northfield, Minnesota. Condolences may be left to the family at www.lawjonesfuneralhome.com.
Margaret was born on August 19, 1912 to John and Helen (Matthiesen) Mommsen on a farm south of Miles. Margaret had nine brothers and sisters. After graduating from Miles Public School, she attended Iowa State University, studying home economics, and then taught in a Clinton County country school. On January 1, 1935, she married Robert Kunau. Their first home was in Miles, where she and Robert established the Kunau Implement Company. From the very first; their marriage was a true partnership; nurturing a strong family; ensuring a solid business; and enjoying good friends, good food, and extended family to the fullest degree possible, Robert Kunau died in October 1985.
Margaret lived for nearly sixty years in Preston, Iowa, where she and her husband Robert owned and operated the Kunau Implement Company and were dealers of a wide range of farm implements. It is Margaret's love of life and her selfless service that will be most remembered and missed by her family and friends. The list of people whose lives she touched is long, from the generations of preschoolers at St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church who were blessed to have Mrs. Kunau to introduce them to the Bible and to more recent years in her work as coordinator of the Manna Center in Preston. Her quilts and teddy bears, made for and given to many friends, will be reminders of her generosity.
Her family, which is grateful for her many gifts of love and life, includes daughters

Jeanne Narum of Washington, DC; Audrey (Philip) Dybdahl, who lives in Madison, Wisconsin; and sons Robert (Mary) Kunau who lives in San Antonio, Texas; Daniel (Janet) Kunau and Richard (Brenda) Kunau who live in Preston, IA; and William (Renelle) Kunau in Plymouth, Minnesota, She will also be missed by two brothers Waldo and Wayne Mommsen; four sisters Ann Simmons, Velma Peterson, Jeannette (Raymond) Eggers and Fern Dosland. In addition, her life is celebrated by seventeen grandchildren and their families, including twenty-four great grand children.

Margaret is preceded in death by her husband Robert; one sister Lois McCulloh; two brothers John Mommsen Jr. and Glen Mommsen and one great-grandson, Stefan Narum.

She leaves a rich legacy for her family: an understanding of the importance of gathering around tables of good food (right from the garden, if possible); the value of hard work, and of doing one's best at all times; and of the joy in being always open to experiencing God's world, from babies to butterflies, from eagles to elderberries, to the Iowa countryside.

Notes for John Howard Peters

John Howard used the name Howard throughout his life. He was raised on a farm and worked for a farmer named Huff in his early married years. He later was a milkman for the Melendy and Crystal Dairies. He worked at E.I. duPont de Nemours first as a slitter and later in the charting office, and retired from the plant when he was sixty-two years old. He loved to dance, cook, play cards and travel. He was extremely sociable, which is perhaps surprising as he was painfully shy as a child. He said when company came he used to hide his face in his hands so he couldn't be seen. He had a great sense of humor, especially noted for his puns.

See notes in the book on Claus Peters and Anna Lass.

Notes for Hazel Katherine Scott

Hazel was sweet and pretty. After her divorce from John Howard Peters, she lived in Chicago for a number of years, as well as Davenport, Iowa for a time. Later, she became a Time Study Engineer for the Collis Company in Clinton, and later yet for Nichols Wire and Specialty in Davenport. This was during her marriage to Dr. Robert Mellen.

Hazel was sweet and pretty. She married Howard when she was sixteen. She didn't know how to cook, as her mother did not let the children help with that chore, and had an interesting start as a bride. They lived on the Huff farm where Howard worked as a hired hand, and one day he brought her a chicken to cook. When he came in the house later, he asked if she had managed to stuff the chicken okay before putting it in the oven. She was completely puzzled, and told him it was already stuffed! (She did not know you had to remove the entrails) Luckily, Howard was an excellent cook and soon taught her. Hazel had also not been on a farm before, and as baby pigs were referred to as piglets, she referred to calves as cowlets.

Hazel was not very musically inclined, but some of her children's favorite memories are of her ironing and singing to them. Two of the songs remembered are "He Told Me He Loved Me, But OH! How He Lied" and "Twas A Dark Stormy Night". At some point, she had to go to work, and worked at the Clinton Garment Factory, where she became a Floorwalker. She was well-liked by co-workers, as has been attested to over the years.

After her divorce from John Howard Peters, she lived in Chicago. During World War II, she worked at the Amertorp Company (American Torpedo Company) in Chicago. Her daughters Betty and Donna lived with her at various times as teenagers. Later, she became a Time Study Engineer for the Collis Company in Clinton, and later yet for Nichols Wire and Specialty in Davenport. This was during her marriage to Dr. Robert Mellen. After his death, she worked at the Alverno Nursing Home in Clinton, where she often had to assume the duties of the registered nurse on third floor. She was fully capable of doing this as she had worked in her husband's medical office for years and assisted him. (Her formal medical education, however, was as a CNA.)

Bernice originally had the middle name of Antoinetta, but her daugher states she legally changed it later in life. Bernice loved to socialize and probably never missed a wedding, shower, or funeral of anyone she knew! She loved to go to dances, and still had a boyfriend when she passed away at age 90! She had many opportunities to be hostess, as hers and Leonard's farm home was continually invaded by hordes of relatives! She had a way of making you feel that you were exactly the person she was hoping to see. Many of her nieces and nephews have fond memories of days and nights spent on that wonderful farm.

Due to his father's hay fever, they moved into Clinton in 1924 when he was five years old, and lived on 20th Avenue North, across from where the Horace Mann School is now. He spoke only German, no English, so was held back from starting school. He says, "My folks moved five times in town, so I attended the North School, Franklin School, Washington Jr. High School and graduated from Clinton High in 1939." Orville was hell on wheels, wearing out many roller skates and bicycle wheels. One icy morning, he ice skatd a mile and a half to school. During high school, he had many lawn jobs and a Sunday paper route. After graduating, he worked at Pete Stamp's gas station and on August 28, 1939 he started working at Clinton Corn Processing Company. He worked there as an electrician for forty years. On June 30, 1941, he was drafted into the army, Company A, 83rd Recon, where he served two years and three months in the States, and two years in Europe - England, France, Belgium and Germany. He was awarded the Purple Heart and the Good Conduct Medal. On Sep. 27, 1945, Orville was discharged from Fort Sheridan, Il. The following year he married his lovely Elsie. He and Elsie were campers for forty years, starting out with a tent and ending up with a 26 foot travel trailer. They spent eighteen winters in Texas. Clinton man killed in skid loader accident

By Warren Kitts, Herald Staff Writer
August 05, 2004

CLINTON - A Clinton County resident died Wednesday afternoon after being trapped in a "skid steer" loader. Clinton County Sheriff Rick Lincoln said Gregory Lee Rogis, 52, was pronounced dead at the scene of the accident, which happened at Rogis' residence at 4083 210th St. in rural Clinton. The Andover Fire Department and DeWitt Ambulance were dispatched to the residence at 3:30 p.m., Lincoln said, adding emergency personnel discovered Rogis was trapped between the skid loader booms and the front of the skid loader. He was extricated and resuscitation efforts began. Lincoln stated the initial investigation shows Rogis was working in his metal fabrication shop on the skid steer loader, which he owned. Rogis was standing outside the machine, working on the operator's compartment when something caused the booms to lower, pinning Rogis. The accident is being investigated by the Clinton County Sheriff's Office and the Clinton County Medical Examiner's office. Visitation will be from 3 to 9 p.m. Friday at the Clinton Chapel Snell-Zornig Dennis A. Lemke Funeral Homes and Crematory, Clinton, where further arrangements are pending.
