THE RUNDOWN

Entering her eighth season at the helm, head coach Nicole Christian has Eastern Oregon University softball poised for another successful 2027 campaign. In 2026, Christian guided the Mountaineers to a 40-13 record, a second-place finish in the regular-season standings, an NAIA Opening Round appearance and a No. 13 national ranking. The Mounties also made program history by reaching the No. 1 ranking for the first time.

EOU returns a strong core of talent, including All-Region and Cascade Collegiate Conference First Team selections Raygun Klippert and Lexi Grumbois, along with fellow First Team honoree Liz Heinz. The Mountaineers will look to their returning standouts and a promising group of newcomers to fill the gaps left by All-American Hope Burke and key contributors Natalie Dimitrov, Emily Barry and Kelly Monaghan.

Among the newcomers expected to make an impact are pitchers Lucy Duval, Ava Eib and Gracie Hurston, along with outfielder Jordynn Marquez, as EOU looks to build on its 2026 success and remain a contender in 2027.
