2026 REWIND

The Knights made another huge jump last season even though there record was the same as the year prior. As a team last year the team bumped their batting average up to .242 which is up 21 points from the year prior. The Knights struggle last year was the pitching ERA which went up a couple full points from 4.97 in 2025 to 6.6 last season. The team will look to get over the hump and get back to the playoffs for the first time since 2021.
