Long Description

Located on Carver Street, the development is built and constructed by Delph Group who also built the stunning Metalworks on Warstone Lane.

The Foundry consists of a selection of 61 Apartments which are One, Two and Three Bedrooms all built and designed with stunning interiors and have the advantage of having built in stylish wardrobes with spacious master bedrooms.

Bathrooms are stunning throughout with modern fixtures and fittings complete with well planned built in storage.

Stunning contemporary open plan living space with timber effect doors and matching flooring throughout.

The Kitchen is fully fitted with stone worktops and integrated appliances to include fridge freezers, washer drier, hob and oven.

The Jewellery Quarter is an amazing place to both live and work with many coffee shops, award winning restaurants and bars to eat and dine at.

Located within walking distance to St Pauls Square and Birmingham City Centre. The Foundry is an ideal place to live for City Professionals.

Excellent transport links both in and out of the City both rail and bus. Close to the A38 and motorway links.
