Long Description

AVAILABLE SEPT 2021 - Orchard Property Services are proud to market this rarely available one bedroom cottage style property presented to the market in an immaculate condition and located moments away from Ickenham Village. Situated on Ivy House Road, this deceptively spacious property offers key features including double glazing, gas central heating throughout, allocated parking and a communal garden area and would be ideal for all types of looking to move into the local area. Within walking distance to Ickenham & West Ruislip Stations, the property also offers easy access to further transport links and is in good condition throughout; we would recommend an internal inspection to truly appreciate the location and décor of the property.
