The Tower's roof and external terracotta cladding has also undergone major works throughout 2016-2017 to protect the buildings waterproof envelope.

The white glazed terracotta cladding on the upper facade of the building was used by the architect in an attempt to cope with the polluted atmosphere of the city and was produced by the famous pottery-maker Doulton.

Overlooking the Tower is the world famous Royal Liver Buildings built in 1910 also designed by architect W. Aubrey Thomas.

On the North side of the Tower is Our Lady and St Nicholas Church (known as the Sailors Church), the church was originally dedicated in 1360 and has been rebuilt many times over the years.

The present day Tower Building is the third Tower to be built on this site since 1252.
