Unique conversion of the Crosby Hotel into 9 x 1 and 2 bedroom apartments. Situated adjacent to St Lukes Church and central to quaint Crosby village local shops, amenities, parks and excellent transport links. Just a short stroll away is Crosby Beach with the famous "Another Place" sculptures by artist Anthony Gormley.

This Victorian building is being sympathetically converted to provide 9 apartments with parking and communal landscaped courtyard garden. Features include stunning vaulted ceilings and stylish living spaces with a contemporary finish.

The former Crosby pub is famous for still having a naval gun/cannon outside dating back to the American Civil War.
