Long Description

A bright and spacious three bedroom maisonette, occupying the upper levels of a four storey Victorian end-terraced house, ideally placed for easy access to Gospel Oak Overground Station (North London Line) and within a very short walking distance of Hampstead Heath. A variety of shops, restaurants, leisure and cultural amenities are also close by.

The accommodation is conveniently arranged and well presented throughout, offering a good-size reception and eat-in kitchen on the first floor with three good size bedrooms on the second floor. To the rear is a terrace with a pleasant southerly aspect
