

You have questions - LOTS of questions!

We have answers that can help you make decisions that are right for your family.

You've planned for almost everything...

We plan what we'll be when we grow up; what career path we'll follow; where we'll go on vacation; what our wedding or honeymoon will be like; how we'll pay for our children's education; when we'll retire; how we'll spend our "golden years."

But when it comes to planning for the inevitable, we tend to procrastinate because no one likes to talk about death, especially their own. We know we're going to have a funeral but there are so many questions that we need to ask. It all seems so overwhelming.

By pre-arranging your funeral, you can relieve some of the stress on your family at that difficult time. Making prearrangements allows your family to focus on the memories of your life rather than the details of your death.

Then... you will have planned for everything.

- ◆ Does your family KNOW YOUR FINAL WISHES?
- ◆ What VITAL INFORMATION is required at the time of death?
- ◆ Can I preplan for BURIAL or CREMATION?
- ◆ What are the BENEFITS of pre-planning my own funeral?
- ◆ Do you know how much it will COST to take care of your final arrangements?
- ◆ What are my OPTIONS for paying so my family isn't burdened with this expense?
- ◆ Do you know how to claim your SOCIAL SECURITY death benefits and what benefits are available to VETERANS and their spouses?
- ◆ What if I MOVE?
- ◆ What if I pass away while TRAVELING?

Whether you want burial or cremation services, our one-hour workshops provide a complimentary, no obligation opportunity to get all your questions answered about making preneed arrangements.

As a local family owned and operated funeral home, the Allen Brothers family has deep roots in our community and a long history of personal service for over 55 years. Our family has been providing answers, sound advice, and caring service since 1964.
