FOUNDATIONS
FOR FAITHFUL CHRISTIAN MINISTRY

FOUNDATIONS FOR FAITHFUL CHRISTIAN MINISTRY BEGINNING APRIL 11

When Paul wrote his letter to the church at Colossae he singled out one individual in the end - Archippus. Colossians 4:17 says, 'And say to Archippus, "See that you fulfill the ministry that you have received in the Lord."' What advice would you give to Archippus to help him fulfill his ministry? We invite you to our Wednesday night service beginning at 6 pm in the Historic Sanctuary, where our Executive Pastor, Andy Brown, will be sharing a new series entitled Foundations for a Faithful Christian Ministry.

GUEST SPEAKER DR. RUSSELL MOORE APRIL 22

Dr. Russell Moore, president of the Ethics & Religious Liberty Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention will be our guest preacher in both morning services on Sunday, April 22. This will be a very historic day in the life of our church and community.

Russell Moore serves as the eighth president of the Ethics & Religious Liberty Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention, the moral and public policy agency of the nation's largest Protestant denomination.

Prior to his election to this role in 2013, Moore served as provost and dean of The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, where he also taught as professor of theology and ethics.

A widely-sought cultural commentator, Dr. Moore has been recognized by a number of influential organizations. The Wall Street Journal has called him "vigorous, cheerful, and fiercely articulate" while The Gospel Coalition has referred to him "one of the most astute ethicists in contemporary evangelicalism."

Dr. Moore blogs frequently at his website RussellMoore.com, and hosts the podcast Signposts. In addition, he is the author of several books, including Onward: Engaging the Culture without Losing the Gospel, Tempted and Tried: Temptation and the Triumph of Christ and Adopted for Life: The Priority of Adoption for Christian Families & Churches.

An ordained minister, Dr. Moore has served as a pastor for a number of Southern Baptist churches—most recently serving as preaching pastor at Highview Baptist Church from 2008-2012. A native Mississippian, he and his wife Maria are the parents of five boys.
