If a course has to be cancelled or postponed due to an Act of God, including but not limited to war, earthquakes, terrorism, natural disasters, the C.H.E.K Institute reserves the right to offer students who are registered for the affected event, a place in a similar event or C.H.E.K Institute Credit equal to the amount of the tuition paid which the student may use for the purchase of product, courses or educational material. Tuition will not be refunded.

Transfer Policy:

Students who register for a C.H.E.K Institute program and subsequently decide to attend another C.H.E.K Institute program must notify the C.H.E.K Institute Education Department, in writing, and complete a new Registration Form to officially transfer. The general tuition for enrollment in a C.H.E.K Institute program is subject to a transfer fee in accordance with the fees listed below when a student transfers from one C.H.E.K Institute program to another program after completing the registration process.

Students who register for a C.H.E.K Institute program and subsequently decide not to attend that program may transfer their enrollment to a third party. Students who register for a C.H.E.K Institute program and subsequently do not meet the eligibility requirements, 30-days prior to the course start date, may be required to transfer to another program. - If the student received any free product with their registration and subsequently requests a refund of the tuition, the normal retail price of such product(s) will be deducted from the amount of tuition paid to date, then this figure will be used to calculate the amount of the refund.
