LAW 15 — MEETING 15

The Law of Contribution
Growing Yourself Enables You To Grow Others

I. Adding Value To Others
A. You cannot ___________ give what you do not have

B. Daily Ask Your Self: “What good shall I do today”

C. What Good ___________ Have I done today?

II. Be A River, Not A Reservoir

These questions are excellent for identifying someone who can encourage us to be our best:

A. Who ___________ mentors you and offers you a baseline of wisdom?

B. Who ___________ mentors you to aspire to be a better person?

C. Who ___________ challenges you to think?

D. Who ___________ cheers on your dreams?

E. Who ___________ cares enough to rebuke you?

F. Who is ___________ merciful when you have failed?

G. Who ___________ shares the load in pressurized moments without being asked?

H. Who ___________ brings fun and laughter into your life?
I.  Who _________________________ when you become dispirited?

J.  Who _____________ you to seek faithfully after God?

K.  Who ___________ you unconditionally?

Now, turn these questions around on yourself and reflect how YOU can be this person to someone else.

III. Making The Right Contribution Choices

A.  ___________ Be grateful

B.  ___________ Put people first

C.  ___________ Don’t let stuff own you

D.  ___________ Don’t let people own you

E.  ___________ Define success as sowing, not reaping

F.  ___________ Keep growing to keep giving
OVERCOME GROWING PAINS
(Specific Steps to Amazing Growth)

• What is your underlying desire in life?
  Self-fulfillment or self-development?

• Are your best efforts focused on making you feel good, or making someone else successful?

• Consider how “others may own you” through unhealthy relationships, unfair expectations, or undesired attention. Make the needed adjustments for these relationships.

• Are you a “Go-Getter” or a “Go-Giver”?
