 GREG BROUGHTON GCS $441,900 fwd BURNT many of us in 2012 but looks a bloody fair option at a new team in 2012 away from Ross Lyon. New start. Hard to overlook. Also FWD	 SHAUN ATLEY NTH $380,400 North young gun ready to break out in his 3rd year. Improved steadily in his first 2 and now available as a defender.. Like him kids. Really like him.	 JORDAN RUSSELL COLL 240,000 Comes over to join Nathan Buckley at Collingwood. Impressing them on the track.. I'm sceptical but watch him in the NAB. Can't get a game at Carlton???	 BEN JACOBS NTH $309,200 Port were dead set spewing to lose this bloke. 3rd season of AFL, is fit this season and could be one to watch very closely in the NAB Cup.	 NATHAN BOCK GCS $297,400 fwd Busts his leg early last season. Proven Supercoach scorer but can he come back up in his 30th year? Tempting here. With the extra trades now maybe? FWD also	 CAM PEDERSON MEL $278,200 def Starved for a crack at it at North Melbourne in 2012 and should have better job security at Melbourne. Ruck too.
 BRENT MOLONEY BRL $362,400 Just didn't dance to Neeld's tune. Simple as that. Voss set to let him run free through the midfield at Brisbane. Watch.	 DAVID MUNDY FRE $477,000 Back in form in 2012 after a busted leg in 2011. Durable despite break.. Could return to avg 110+. Downgrade to code ORANGE after injury scare at training.. Watch.	 KOBY STEVENS WBD $176,600 Talented young kid who will get game time at the Dogs after moving from the talent drenched West Coast. Could play every game if fit.	 ANDREW EMBLEY WCE $284,000 Turns 32 in 2013 after injury ravaged in 2012. Big vest and injury risk here.. Caution.	 LUKE PARKER SYD $378,000 Vest trouble in 2012 but should step up in 2013 to join the midfield group. A sneaky POD that could pay dividends.	 LUKE BALL COLL $302,000 Back after a knee reco.. Not sure where he'll fit in a packed Pie midfield and must be an injury risk. Not for me.
 LEUENBERGER BRL $301,100 Scored 100+ for his last 9 games in 2011 averaging 122. Injured most of 2012 but back on the track.. Lock if fit	 NATHAN VARDY GEEL $239,700 They love this bloke at the Cattery.. Has H Mac to contend with now but could emerge at the #1 Cat ruckman by years end	 JOSH JENKINS ADEL $363,300 fwd Plenty to like about Josh in 2013, no Tippet opens a door for him and his ruck / forward eligibility make him attractive.	GUNS AND ROOKIES I just reckon that we have too many quality premium and rookie options to consider many more mid priced ruck options in 2013 for mine kids.... Got any in mind?
 TRAVIS VARCOE GEEL 268,900 mid One hell of a footballer and being trialled in the Yarran type half back running role in preseason. Lock if fit folks. MID as well.	 SHANNON BYRNES MELB $230,100 Mix of injury and opportunity restricted him at Geelong.. I rate this bloke very bloody highly. Still 28. Will play if fit.	 ANGUS MONFRIES PTA $356,700 mid Old mate Ken Hinkley suggests that Gus will spend more time in the midfield this year after crossing from Essendon. Interesting one.	 ARRYN SIPOSS STK $316,600 Nice smokey here. Word from the inside is he may slot into Goddard's role.. Skilled.. Talented... watch v closely in NAB.	 MARK LeCRAS WCE $369,200 Snapped his ACL last pre season just as he looked set to dominate. Real value here after a solid preseason.	 CHRIS KNIGHTS RICH $248,300 Talk of a fall out with the Crows where he had slip opportunity. A cross to Tigerland should see more game time... not convinced.
