Open Call for the 2014 TESOL Annual Convention Program Chair

Would you like to be considered for the Convention Program Chair, 2014 TESOL International Convention in Portland, Oregon USA?

Position Overview

The incoming TESOL President-Elect, who will be elected in January 2012, will select the 2014 TESOL Convention Program Chair (CPC), and the new CPC will be confirmed at the March 2012 TESOL Board of Directors meeting.

The CPC, who is a member of TESOL, works with the Convention Committee to assemble a dynamic, well-balanced academic program for TESOL’s annual convention. The individual will serve as the incoming CPC on the three-member Convention Committee with the current CPC and the past CPC. The position entails a three-year commitment to committee meetings, electronic communication, and serving ex officio on the TESOL Board of Directors (2013–2014). Appropriate recognition of the CPC will appear in TESOL’s publications and on its Web site, and TESOL will cover any expenses related to the position.

Responsibilities of the CPC

- Studies needs-assessment tools and trends in the English language teaching community to shape the convention’s academic program. Continually evaluates the relevance of the current academic program.

- Develops the convention theme and generates a coherent academic program by assuring that diverse, relevant subject matter is represented.

- Interacts with the President, Board of Directors, membership entities (i.e., Interest Sections and Affiliates), Convention Committee, and related local site committees on issues related to the academic program, as well as with the Director of Conference Services and Central Office staff who are responsible for annual convention operations and logistics.

- Attends a maximum of five meetings per calendar year, which may include up to three planning meetings, TESOL’s annual convention, and other meetings as needed. Historically, meetings are held during the months of January, March, June, August, and October. Whenever possible, meetings are held via Skype conference call instead of in person.

- Serves ex officio on the TESOL Board of Directors from March 2013 to March 2014.
CPC Profile

- Commitment to working with the convention committee for three years.
- Understanding of and experience with TESOL’s annual convention structure or with similar academic program planning.
- Capacity to develop goals, set priorities—and meet deadlines.
- Ability to work in a collaborative environment with the TESOL community and to inspire others to build a solid academic program.
- Initiative and vision to make the TESOL annual convention academic program the best possible professional development for participants.
- Leadership skills, particularly the ability to think critically and creatively.

Application Procedure

- Interested individuals should submit the information listed below via e-mail to conventions@tesol.org with the subject line: CPC Candidate Submission. The deadline is 11:59 pm, Eastern Standard Time, 15 December 2011.
- All interested TESOL Members may submit an application. The TESOL President-Elect may encourage potential candidates to submit application materials for consideration. All CPC candidates must submit the required information by the established deadline in order to be considered.
- The CPC will be selected by the 2012–2013 President-Elect and confirmed by the Board of Directors.
- Confirmation of the CPC will take place at the March 2012 TESOL Board of Directors meeting. The selected individual will attend the convention held 28-31 March 2012, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, USA, to begin work with the convention committee. Four nights hotel will be covered by TESOL.

Please submit the following information:

1. Résumé (attached as a separate document).

2. Statement (1,000 words or less) to include:
   a. Three experiences that support the CPC Profile listed above.
   b. Prior experiences at TESOL’s annual convention in the last five years (i.e., participant, presenter, TESOL leader, or volunteer) and other related experience (i.e., academic, TESOL affiliates, and community service).
c. Time management ability, which includes commitment to meeting deadlines, attending meetings, and staying accessible.

3. Two letters of recommendation from TESOL members stating how the candidate has exhibited the CPC Profile listed above.
