

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

EXPERIENCE ALL 7 SHIPS

No matter which ship you are on, you'll have the chance to experience all other ships:

- Saturday March 17 in port at Amsterdam - Symposium Shipboard Open House
- Explore ships at your leisure whenever we are in port
- Enjoy several "dine around" experiences for lunch and dinner during the sailing

ACCOMODATIONS

Your assigned hotel and ship accommodations are available in My Events:

- All assignments are final
- You must be a registered and paid Symposium participant to gain access to any ship
- Absolutely no guests unless they are paid and registered Symposium attendees

ATTIRE FOR THE EVENT

Please refer to the current agenda for the suggested dress for each day and event:

- Business meetings will be business casual (no tie required for men)
- Majority of social events will be smart casual, with two more formal cocktail receptions
- For excursions, plan on comfortable shoes and a jacket for cool weather

BEFORE YOU GO

Plan ahead:

- Submit your flight information by February 9 to guarantee an airport transfer
- Select your "design your day" by February 16
- All professional development classes are capacity controlled so sign up early

UPON ARRIVAL

Collect your name badge, packet and luggage tags on Friday or Saturday at host hotels in Amsterdam:

- Be sure to use provided luggage tags to ensure your bags make it to your assigned ship
- Wear name badge at all times – security will be checking badges as you board ships
- Each ship will have a mandatory safety briefing shortly after embarkation
