

COMPASS PODCAST

Show notes, June 18, 2018

Kyle Sigmon was our guest. Kyle is a husband, father of 4, a pastor at FaithBridge, and multiple instrumentalist, singer/songwriter whose music is a product of his own creative and contemplative explorations. His music exists to do more than entertain. The hope is to inspire and stir listeners to find their own art offering their lives back to the world.

Check out Kyle's music at www.kylesigmon.com.

---

During the episode, Kyle, Pierce, and Ryan all shared music where they were surprised by something spiritual.

Kyle's recommendation was Sufjan Stevens' album "Carrie & Lowell":

<http://music.sufjan.com/album/carrie-lowell>

Pierce recommended JAY-Z's "4:44": <https://itunes.apple.com/us/album/4-44/1256675529>

Ryan was struck by the lyrics of Peter Gabriel's "Solsbury Hill" (he's fond of this live recording):

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=fbCJUMBeHX4>

---

During the interview, Kyle mentioned Richard Rohr. Richard produces a series of daily meditations through the Center for Action and Contemplation. You can sign up to receive them, too:

<https://cac.org/category/daily-meditations/>

---

Catch up with us online:

Kyle Sigmon:

- Twitter: @kylesigmon
- Instagram: @kylesigmon
- Facebook: @kylesigmonmusic

Pierce Drake:

- Twitter: @JPDII
- Instagram: @JPDII

Ryan Dunn:

- Twitter: @RyanIsDunn
- Instagram: @strangedunn

Rethink Church:

- Twitter: @umrethinkchurch
- Instagram: @rethinkchurch
- Facebook: @umcrethinkchurch