“Now is the time to make justice a reality for all of God’s children.”
—The Rev. Martin Luther King Jr., “I Have a Dream,” 1963

“I delight to do your will, O my God; your law is within my heart. I have told the glad news of deliverance in the great congregation.”
—Psalm 40:8-9a, NRSV
YOUR GIFT HELPS CARE FOR ALL GOD’S CHILDREN

In his “Letter from a Birmingham Jail” (April 1963), the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. wrote, “Just as the prophets of the eighth century B.C. left their villages and carried their ‘thus saith the Lord’ far beyond the boundaries of their hometowns, and just as the Apostle Paul left his village of Tarsus and carried the gospel of Jesus Christ to the far corners of the Greco Roman world, so I am compelled to carry the gospel of freedom beyond my own hometown.

“Like Paul, I must constantly respond to the Macedonian call for aid.” United Methodists continue King’s quest to bring God’s light to the world by celebrating Human Relations Day on the Sunday before the birthday observance of the civil rights leader.

Human Relations Day calls the Church to recognize the right of all God’s children in realizing their potential as human beings in relationship with each other.”

Generous gifts to the churchwide special offering support three vital ministries: Community Developers and United Methodist Voluntary Services, both related to the General Board of Global Ministries, and Youth Offender Rehabilitation, overseen by the General Board of Church and Society.

As we share God’s glad news of deliverance and honor King’s legacy on Human Relations Day, may we remember these words: “Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere. We are caught in an inescapable network of mutuality, tied in a single garment of destiny. Whatever affects one directly, affects all indirectly.”

YOUR GIFT TODAY MATTERS

YOUR GIFT HELPS CARE FOR ALL GOD’S CHILDREN

In his “Letter from a Birmingham Jail” (April 1963), the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. wrote, “Just as the prophets of the eighth century B.C. left their villages and carried their ‘thus saith the Lord’ far beyond the boundaries of their hometowns, and just as the Apostle Paul left his village of Tarsus and carried the gospel of Jesus Christ to the far corners of the Greco Roman world, so I am compelled to carry the gospel of freedom beyond my own hometown.

“Like Paul, I must constantly respond to the Macedonian call for aid.” United Methodists continue King’s quest to bring God’s light to the world by celebrating Human Relations Day on the Sunday before the birthday observance of the civil rights leader.

Human Relations Day calls the Church to recognize the right of all God’s children in realizing their potential as human beings in relationship with each other.”

Generous gifts to the churchwide special offering support three vital ministries: Community Developers and United Methodist Voluntary Services, both related to the General Board of Global Ministries, and Youth Offender Rehabilitation, overseen by the General Board of Church and Society.

As we share God’s glad news of deliverance and honor King’s legacy on Human Relations Day, may we remember these words: “Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere. We are caught in an inescapable network of mutuality, tied in a single garment of destiny. Whatever affects one directly, affects all indirectly.”

YOUR GIFT TODAY MATTERS