

Brief Curriculum Vitae
Marsia Bealby (Maria-Aspasia Sfakianou Bealby)

Academic Studies:

2007 - ongoing: FT PhD in Archaeology,
University of Birmingham UK.

PhD research: Interconnections, Trade and Cultural Exchange between Minoan Crete/ the Aegean Islands and Egypt. c.
1850-1400 B.C.

2007: DL Certificate in Egyptology, University of Exeter UK.

2006: PT Masters in Practical Archaeology:
University of Birmingham UK.
Masters dissertation: Tomb KV5: Valley of the Kings, Egypt (An itinerary of the research).

2004: FT (four years) BA (Hons) in Archaeology and History of Art.
National and Kapodistrian University of Athens,
Greece.
BA dissertation: Naucratis in Egypt.

Foreign Languages:

Greek: maternal language
English: proficiency
Italian: very good
Arabic: very good
French: very good
German: beginners level
Spanish: beginners level

'Ancient' and 'Old' Languages / Scripts:

Ancient Greek
Koine Greek
Medieval Greek
Latin
Middle Egyptian

Main Archaeological Interests:

Archaeology and Prehistory of the Aegean
(focus on Crete and the Archipelago)
Egyptology
Practical and Field Archaeology
Material Culture

Secondary Archaeological and Other Research Interests:

Paleopathology and Ancient Genetics*
Cultural Memory
Funerary Archaeology
Classical Archaeology
Roman Archaeology
Medieval Archaeology
Archaeology of Britain
Public Archaeology, Museology and Heritage
Studies
Experimental Archaeology
Survey and Geophysics
Heritage Management
Ancient Myths and Legends
Magic in the Ancient World
Mediterranean Archaeology
Anatolian Archaeology
Prehistory of Cyprus
Mesopotamian Archaeology
Syro-Palestinian Archaeology
Sumerian Archaeology
Archaeology of the Sudan

*i.e. Genetic Syndromes, Teratogenesis and Deformity as seen in Ancient Cultures and Religious Beliefs and Practices, Mythology,
Scripts and Art.