

ACCA Online Courses

When you want to become a student for ACCA, there are certain qualifications needed to become a graduate. A.P.C provide ACCA online courses that you can utilize in a number of ways to further your education and career opportunities. Once you have completed the long journey involving ACCA courses the qualifications and high scores will place you in a good position on becoming a Chartered Accountant or financial advisor.

There are a number of tasks you will need to complete to obtain ACCA qualifications. The qualifications are based on professional values and accounting knowledge needed for the career of a “Chartered Accountant”.

ACCA Online Exams

There are fourteen exams offered in the ACCA courses of which nine will need completion along with high scores. In addition you will need some knowledge or to read up on “Professional Ethics Module”. You will need to have a diploma on Business and Accounting before you begin on any of the ACCA online courses available. An ACCA qualification allows you access to the detailed knowledge needed in areas of Business and Accounting.

ACCA Modules

-The P1 module involves questions on risk management, auditing, accounts and managing money. F1-F3 modules will test your basic knowledge on management, finance and accounting. F4-F9 is known as the “Skills” module, this will test your skills in a number of technical areas, accounts, auditing and your knowledge on the necessary laws.

-Modules P1-P7 are a number of exams that will add to your total score on the ACCA qualifications. These modules will include government ethics and certain risks pertaining to government issues. In these modules you will learn about and take exams on assurance knowledge, advanced auditing, financial management, business analysis and corporate reporting. There are adequate times between each of these examinations to ensure you are provided with ample time to prepare for each examination.

The modules involved between P1-P7 are regarded as professional levels and are considered to be the hardest part of the ACCA courses. You will need adequate time and dedication towards these courses to ensure you pass with high scores. The examinations that you will need to complete from F4-F9 are all based on the type of knowledge and skills you possess about management skills, auditing and accounting.

The modules that include F1-F3 are designed in such a way that you will need some basic knowledge on the courses. These courses can provide you with a professional outcome for your chosen profession and a way to gain a practical understanding of the industry. Once you have completed an ACCA qualification you open up many doors in career opportunities.

Your ACCA qualifications can ensure you are able to apply for jobs in a number of sectors in economy that deals with finance. You can complete these courses online and manage your time effectively to ensure you gain the most out of these opportunities. Be sure to find out about the necessary diplomas or experience needed before you apply for an online course in advanced accounting.