

SIGMA KAPPA

Live with Heart

Delta Pi • Lock Haven University

Hello all, and welcome to another Delta Pi newsletter! The sisters of Delta Pi have all been extremely busy since the last newsletter. We've had initiation, Relay for Life (where the campus community raised just shy of $27,000!), Greek Week (where we unfortunately came in 4th place), our Inherit the Earth clean up, our chapter formal, as well as many volunteer and PR experiences in between. You never have to worry whether we are busy or not, because I promise you this group of girls is almost always on the go!

*Meet Delta Pi's Advisory Board Supervisor: Suzanne Welch***
 I'm sure many of you have been wondering who has been in charge of keeping an eye on our chapter, well ladies fear not because I have your answer! Meet Suzanne Welch! She has been Delta Pi's advisor since 2017. As an alumnae of the Gamma Epsilon chapter at Indiana University of Pennsylvania, Suzanne is well aware of the trials and tribulations that a chapter may come into contact with and she has assisted Delta Pi to the best of her capabilities each and every time. For that, we say THANK YOU SUZANNE!

*Collegian Spotlight: Kaitlyn Winslow***
 Sister Winslow has had her hands quite full this semester! Serving as our Vice President of Membership, she organized our Formal recruitment for the semester. When we lost a member of our Executive Counsel, Sister Winslow stepped up and took on the role of two executive officers. We are eternally grateful for her determination and persistence in all she does!
