Spotlight shines on...

We are always proud of our chapter president, Ryann McCall, but we are even more so today! 🙌 Wofford Women of Color invited her to speak on a panel entitled "Women's History Month: NPHC and NPC Women in Leadership" on behalf of our chapter. The panel discussed how sororities can help prepare women for leadership positions by providing opportunities to develop their professional and interpersonal skills, as well as the challenges of these leadership roles and ideas and strategies for overcoming these challenges. ✨ Great job, Ryann!

We had the BEST time at this year's Zeta Day. Anne McChesney was inducted into the Order of the Shield for 50 years of membership, Amanda Richardson was awarded the Distinguished Alumnae Award, and Molly Owens was awarded the Ginny Gibson Fowler Outstanding Advisor Award. The Spartanburg Alumnae Chapter won Crown Chapter, Excellence in Public Relations, and Excellence in Programming. We are so proud of our sisters for all of their achievements! 🎉💖

FOMO...

We know quite a few of you were excited to order your new ZTA merch to benefit our ZTA Foundation Scholarship in our current campaign. We've had an issue with licensing review that we expect to be resolved very soon. If you've already placed your order, you will be receiving your items soon! If you hadn't ordered yet, don't worry! We'll let you know when we've got the green light to proceed.

March Book Drive Results...

Thank you to all who participated in our March service project via United Way of the Piedmont's Prepared to Thrive book drive. Our alumnae chapter purchased 13 book bundles (that's 39 books!) for local school children!
