Dear Deltas,

Welcome to our 2020-2021 Tri Delta year. We will be navigating together to see what our year will look like. My goal is to keep us connected and engaged—even though we may not be able to see each other in person. Our kick off get-together in September will be over ZOOM, and then who knows!

Be on the lookout for the newsletter every other month and emails in between!!

Lots to read~
With Delta Love,
Christina Langford Kluth

Recruitment News

Recruitment is looking very different this year!! Most of the schools are 100% virtual, while some are doing "Pref" in person. For round 1, open house—the Potential New Members (PNMs) sent in videos answering prompted questions and the chapters provided videos for the PNMs to watch. From there, the rounds were done in Zoom groups with one on one conversations. From the active side, I'm hearing that they like this format because its less stress and they have better conversations with fewer distractions.

Thanks to everyone for providing references and additional information on our local girls!

As part of our LEADDD Now plan to create an equitable and inclusive lifetime membership experience for Tri Delta's Black, Indigenous and Sisters of Color, Tri Delta's Convention delegates voted in July to expand the number of Executive Board members by two and asked the Leadership Development Committee (LDC) to fill those vacancies with Black, Indigenous and Sisters of Color. The LDC has recommended and the Executive Board has approved the addition of Emily Greer, Rhodes, and Tycely Williams, Wake Forest, as members of the Executive Board. The entire 7-person board will be installed in a few weeks together as they begin service for the 2020-2022 biennium. We know their collective wisdom, expertise and voice will create a memorable and meaningful lifetime member experience for all Tri Deltas.
