

The Pine Press

The 2nd Annual Charity Bowl!

On October 26th, Gamma Sigma gathered at Donovan's Pub to raise money for St. Jude Children's Hospital!

Last year, Gamma Sigma started a new Family Weekend tradition with the introduction of the Charity Bowl! This year, the ladies of Tri Delta, along with PAC House (Philanthropists at Colgate), and Delta Upsilon worked together to raise over $2,100 for St. Jude Children's Hospital! The Charity Bowl was planned by philanthropy chairs Kate Allaway '14 and Summer Reimer '15. In Kate's words:

"We were really impressed with the donations from both the village of Hamilton and girls in the chapter, which made it a great event for the entire Colgate community!"

Becky Reindel '15 and Summer Reimer '15 at the Charity Bowl

A Letter from the Editor

Dearest Deltas,

I cannot believe how quickly the semester is flying by. It seems like just yesterday that we had our first day of classes!

I hope you enjoy this latest issue of the Pine Press. Read on to hear about recent chapter events and a spotlight on one of our very own alumna!

If you have any questions whatsoever please do not hesitate to contact me. I am here to make it easier for you to stay connected to the chapter!

Delta Love,

Becca Murphy

On Our Way to Being a Safe Zone!

Delta Delta Delta and the LGBTQ Initiative

In October, Gamma Sigma participated in Safe Zone training run by interns from the LGBTQ Initiative. The program was organized by Becky Reindel '15 who said:

"The previous activities chair, OTC, and I all feel that encouraging education and discussion of LGBTQ issues within the chapter is important. The Safe Zone allowed sisters to learn terms pertaining to the LGBTQ community as well as encouraged open and honest discussion about the strengths and weaknesses of our chapter, sororities and all Greek life in relation to the LGBTQ community and positive sexuality. We hope to make Safe Zone training a mandatory part of new member education starting next year!"

Get in touch with the current Alumnae Chairwoman at: ColgateDeltaAlumni@gmail.com

Keep us updated! https://docs.google.com/forms/d/1LcYOugiLBVt_SvRTkOfzr-nFN3ZNoknoSwdMetM8cco/viewform

Have a Facebook? Join our page!
"Colgate University Delta Delta Delta Alumnae"

We're on instagram and twitter too!
Follow us at ColgateTriDelta

Where Are They Now?

Find out what your sisters have been up to since graduation....

Did you know that one of our sisters has launched her art on Etsy?

I had the chance to ask Kim Zeluck '11 a few questions about her time in Tri Delta, her art, and how she got to where she is today! Keep reading to find out about her “Kimsical” art and hear from Kim in her own words:

On her favorite Tri Delta Memory:

Oh god, there are so many. Having sing-alongs in the shower with the person in the next stall. Going apple picking and demolishing a whole apple pie later that evening. Raiding everyone’s wardrobe before a formal!

On her path after graduation:

During my senior year, I suddenly realized that I had no idea what I wanted to do after college. I took a huge leap of faith and applied to Masters programs at several art schools in hopes of gaining a specialized skill. Going to Parsons had always been a dream of mine, so once I got into their MFA Interior Design program, I accepted. After graduating, I found a job at a high profile design firm. Unfortunately, it ended up being a rather negative work environment, and as a result, I began painting again to de-stress myself. I realized that life was too short to not pursue the things that I loved the most.

On what she’s up to now:

I am currently trying to find a job at a more transdisciplinary design firm, while working on writing and illustrating my own children’s book on the side. I also opened up my own shop on Etsy - Z as in Zebras (www.etsy.com/shop/ZasinZebras) - and have been teaching myself how to run a small business, how to get better at marketing, and so on!

On what inspires her work:

Truthfully, my paintings just illustrate what I imagine a piece of my mind would look like under a microscope. I have a lot of ideas and when I get one, I doodle it somewhere and try to incorporate it into my art later.

On choosing the name for her shop:

“Z as in Zebras” is how everyone in my family begins spelling our last name, Zeluck, out to other people. The phrase just always stuck - there’s a nice punchiness to it.

Pearls of wisdom:

On Sisterhood: Enjoy every good and bad moment with your sisters. Oh, and definitely save every funny email, poem, and picture you’ve ever taken during sisterhood events. They will increase in value with each passing year.

“Tiny Planets” available on Z as in Zebras

Deltas in Pictures

Alexa Gage '15, Nora Landells '16 and Cambria Litsey '14 at Delta Family Pumpkin Carving

Alli O'Leary '08, Sue LeBarron '08, and Cait Kennelly '08 showing their Delta pride!

Cate Gropper '14 supports Colgate football!