

Sigma Sigma Sigma

Epsilon Rho

December 2016

Fall 2016 Newsletter

The women of Sigma Sigma Sigma are having an amazing year! We as a chapter thought that we would send a little update on everything we have done this semester.

Sigma Serves

Our event “Soup, Salad and Sigmas” raised $850 for our philanthropy Sigma Serves Children. This money will go toward therapeutic play for children in long term hospital care.

New Alumnae Members

This semester we also said goodbye to seven of our members; Heather Hines, Ashley James, Mackenzie Taylor, Maddie Taylor, Kayla Perry, Haylee Sieben, and Katie Bohn. All of these amazing women will be joining our alumnae and will be going on to accomplish so much in this world! We are so proud of them.

We elected our new Officer Board for 2017!
President: Mariah Stein
Vice President of Operations: Rachael Grooms
Vice President of New Member Education: Makayla Wickmann
Treasurer: Jolene Fadden
Secretary: Leah Anderson
Recruitment Director: Alyssa Watkins
Education Director: Kaylynn Cousin
Panhellenic Delegate: Catherine Miller

Honor Council:
Chairwoman: Hannah Roskamp
Goals Coordinator: Chrissy Crider
Secretary: Christina Hickey

We also had sisters elected to the Panhellenic Council for 2016.

Vice President of Member Development & Education: Kenzie Alfred
Vice President of Community Service & Philanthropy: Kayla Cremers

Initiation

This semester we were able to initiate 26 wonderful women into the Epsilon Rho chapter. Making total this semester with 74 members.

We will update you again in the spring!

With love,
The women of Sigma Sigma Sigma, Epsilon Rho

