LAKE TITICACA, PERU

Titilaka

“Singular hotel in enchanting, end-of-the-world lakeside setting. Boxy red-brick exterior disguises alluring loft-like accommodations. One elegant and sophisticated suite dominated by a large window, beneath which were matching daybeds; full-length glass wall separates raised wet area — with a slatted wood floor, double vanities, separate shower and deep soaking tub — from sleeping/living area. Most appealing public room is the open-plan dining room/lounge with sitting area. Food is very light with a contemporary Peruvian cast. Numerous excursions available, including tours among indigenous peoples on Taquile Island and the Uros floating islands.” —Andrew Harper
