

Victorian Allied Health Research Conference 2014

Friday 28 March 2014

Clinical Innovation: *The Nexus between Research and Reform

Call for Abstracts – NOW OPEN

Abstract submission for Victoria's inaugural research conference for all allied health disciplines is open from Monday 11 November and close on 6pm Sunday 15 December 2013

www.vahrc.com.au/abstract/request

Presentation Formats

Oral Presentation

12 minutes to present, 3 minutes question (15 min in total per presentation)

Poster

Submit as a part of same process for oral presentations. Must fit on one standard (default) PowerPoint slide or A1 size in printed format.

Abstracts should be submitted under these themes:

- From efficacy to effectiveness
- Is e-Health the way forward?
- Translating evidence to practice
- Workforce innovation for meeting future demands
- Prioritisation of service in allied health
- Industry collaboration with public allied health services
- Consumer empowerment and allied health services
- Pushing Boundaries: extended scope of allied health practice
- Managing chronic disease in the community
- Allied health service models to improve patient flow
- Inter-professional models of care
- Innovation in allied health education
- Leadership, mentoring and supervision
- Workforce planning for allied health
- Other

Submitting Abstracts for Review

Abstracts are to be submitted in the template provided on the website.

Abstracts submitted should be no more than 250 words in length. All Abstracts must be submitted by the closing date, 8 December 2013.

A 50 word biography of the presenting author is required (to be used to introduce presenting author at conference). Biography details are to be included on the abstract template.

For abstract submissions with a poster - a copy of the poster needs to be uploaded with the abstract submission as a Microsoft PowerPoint slide (PPT),

Early bird registration will open on 22 November 2013

Please refer to the website for further details