Chicago Architecture Scavenger Hunt

Venture through the Loop with friends in this fun architectural discovery game

Media interested in attending this unique behind-the-scenes event should RSVP with Nikki Snodgrass; contact info above.

Chicago, Ill. — Chicago Architecture Foundation's (CAF) first-ever architectural Scavenger Hunt in downtown Chicago will take place on Saturday, June 7. Guests are invited to journey through the Loop with a map and game guide provided by CAF, solving clues and completing tasks at up to 20 historic sites. Afterwards, participants will reconvene in the atrium of the beautiful Railway Exchange Building to find out who the winners are, enjoy a drink and share the experiences of the day.

In the spirit of CAF's annual Open House Chicago, the Scavenger Hunt is part of a new program series that brings guests up close and personal with some of the city's most iconic buildings. From architectural novices to experts, the game is designed for participants of all kinds to enjoy, and gain a unique appreciation for the significance of the city's design.

Registration includes a free t-shirt, Divvy pass and a drink provided by Goose Island at the reception. This event will take place rain or shine and includes three hours of physical activity traveling around the loop.
