

Anna-Sophie Berger, “The Fool at Sea”

Art, Contemporary art  JTT , Lower East Side  Until Saturday April 14 2018

Photograph: Courtesy JTT

The NYC Parks and Recreation logo figures prominently in this show that includes public space as one of its themes. Another is the “space” of art discourse, exemplified here by an installation incorporating JTT’s back office furniture, which has been covered with colorful slipcases—a gesture meant to suggest an intrusion into the normal course of gallery business.