

Halloween Pet Safety

- Don't leave your pet in the yard the pranksters will be out.
- No candy for pets, chocolate is often poisonous, tin foil, and wrappers can be dangerous.
- Be careful of pets near a lit pumpkin, they can knock it over, or get burned.
- Don't dress the dog in a costume unless he loves it, this can be stressful on a dog.
- If you dress a dog, make sure it is not constricting, or obstructing vision, and get your pet used to wearing the costume.
- All but the most social dogs should be kept in a separate room from trick or treaters, strangers in costume can be very scary and confusing.
- Be careful your pet does not leave the home when the door is open.
- Walk your dog early, before dark.
