Abby Stoudt's wishes because of her love for animals

Abby Stoudt

Abby Stoudt was a wonderful, caring woman who loved all animals. Because of that love, she shared her residence not only with her loving husband, but also with several horses, dogs, and cats, some of which she rescued. Abby felt strongly that “what we do in life defines who we are.”

Much to everyone’s dismay, Abby’s life was cut short after a battle with cancer. It was her wish to start this fund to help animals in need.

The Abby Fund will continue to define Abby’s life contribution.
