

HONDURAN TPS UPDATE

The Department of Homeland Security (DHS) automatically extended work authorization until June 30, 2019 for people who have filed a TPS re-registration application but have not yet received their new employment authorization card.

Work Authorization Automatically Extended until June 30, 2019 for Certain Honduran TPS Holders:

DHS is sending out letters to TPS holders to provide proof of the automatic work extension to show to employers.

If you have not received a letter from DHS yet about the automatic extension of work permission:

- Talk to your union rep if you have one
  - If you belong to a union, talk to your union rep to help you with employer questions about work authorization.
- Show your employer these papers
  - Make a copy of the DHS webpage that announces the automatic extension - available at iAmerica.org/HonduranTPS
  - Show your most recent employment authorization card

TPS holders from Honduras should also:

Carry proof of TPS status

It's important to keep proof that you have TPS status with you. A copy of your employment authorization card, a copy of the Federal Register Notice and a copy of the completed Form I-821 and receipt showing you've applied for an extension of TPS will prove that you have TPS status. Download a copy of the Federal Register Notice at iAmerica.org/TPS.

Find out if you qualify for another type of immigration status.

Many TPS holders have been in the U.S. for years and may be eligible for other types of immigration status and benefits. To see a partial list of possible immigration options use the checklist at iAmerica.org/TPS and then consult with a reputable immigration attorney or legal services organization.
