Faces of Joy

A favorite game around the house is keep to it on the table as seen in the photo on the left. This week we also had a visit from Brandii's baby, Journii. No one in the house could resist that sweet baby face.

Caregiver Tips

Helping seniors understand and respond to medical conditions and care options can be difficult, and things like diagnoses and medical speak are often far from easy to interpret. It is essential for caregivers to ask plenty of questions to fully understand a senior's condition and what, if anything, can be done in some cases. This empowers the caregiver with relevant information and is an efficient way for caregivers to safeguard better the health and well-being of the seniors they care for.

Week in Review July 16-20th

Monday: Fill the ring, zoo animals, bingo with our friends at the Waters, animals sounds, charades and laughter were on the agenda

Tuesday: Take me out to the ball game! We spent the day talking about baseball, doing baseball related crafts, and playing baseball related physical games. The Guests had to do a seventh inning stretch during the midway point of the day.

Wednesday: Kids say the darndest things, tabletop bowling, silly phrases and funny questions were a few examples of activities that brought smiles to the faces of the Guests. Painting flowers using paper towel tubes was another part of the day that brought smiles to the faces.

Thursday: Photo discussion, photo frames, fill the bucket and balloon volleyball were just a few things you would have witnessed today.

Friday: Picnic discussion, making necklaces, enjoying donuts were just a portion of the good times had by the Guests and staff on the last day of the week. A special thanks to the Altenheim for being our donut sponsor for the year!

Yard Signs

The signs are free and please take one (or two!) to put in your yard. There is a suggested donation of $5. Don't let the cost stop you, our goal is to get the signs out in the community.

So, take two or three and stake them with permission in high traffic areas. Please keep the stake after the event, as more signs are coming soon. Thank you!
